Man Accepts Ride, Robbed by 'Friend'
A drinking companion who offered him a ride held him up and took $50 from him, Frank A. Gregg, of Gardena, told sheriff's deputies Monday.
Gregg said the man had invited him to see some friends in Torrance. When they reached Carson and Main St., the man stuck something in his ribs and demanded his money, Gregg said, and pushed him out of the car.
BIG BUSINESS
Christmas trees are at least a $50 million a year business, it is estimated, and some concerns have made them a major source of production.
